no other writer is so grudgingly admired as milton he wrote great poetry goes the received wisdom but his creed was narrow chilling and inhuman his reputation is that of a stereotypical puritan and authoritarian yet theo hobson maintains that no one opposed religious authoritarianism with such vehemence indeed he argues that no one was so adamant that political freedom is built into the christian gospel milton insisted that protestantism was compatible with political liberty that the two ideas are complementary by treating all ecclesiastical authority with suspicion he helped to establish the modern ideal of secularism he was a christian libertarian who wanted every form of church to wither away so that the gospel might be completely free of coercion milton s vision is thus a vital contribution to the contemporary debate about the place of religion in public life there has never been a study of milton that highlights his relevance to the core issues of our day how religion gives rise to and interacts with secular ideals
