the netherlands belgium and luxembourg are well known cases of consensus politics decision making in the low countries has been characterized by broad involvement power sharing and making compromises these countries were also founding member states of the European Union EU and its predecessors however the relationship between European integration and the tradition of domestic consensus politics remains unclear in order to explore this relationship this book offers in depth studies of a wide variety of political actors such as governments parliaments political parties courts ministries and interest groups as well as key policy issues such as the ratification of EU treaties and migration policy the authors focus not only on Europeanization but also analyse whether European integration may gradually undermine the fundamental characteristics of consensus politics in the low countries drawing on consociationalism and Europeanization research this volume provides a comprehensive overview of Europeanization in these three EU member states as well as a better understanding of the varieties of consensus politics across and within these countries this book will be of interest to students and scholars of European studies European integration European law political science European political economy and comparative politics

Roger Owen has fully revised and updated his authoritative text to take into account the latest developments in the Middle East this book continues to serve as an excellent introduction for newcomers to the modern history and politics of this fascinating region this third edition continues to explore the emergence of individual Middle Eastern states since the fall of the Ottoman Empire at the end of the first world war and the key themes that have characterized the region since then

An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women in recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lorde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J. Ruppp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research the book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a mélange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate in a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships identity politics in the women's movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose
